- b. Have a minimum of 25 total students enrolled between the infant level through grade 12.

Article IV: Qualifications of Members

Sec. 1 All independent schools/programs/centers (“school” or “schools”) of Florida which shall meet the Standards shall be eligible for membership.

Sec. 2 An independent school/program/center shall be defined as an educational institution in which the ultimate control is vested in an independent executive or independent board of directors/trustees.

- A. When an independent school/program/center operates on more than one site, each site shall be evaluated and accredited separately, and the failure of one site to meet the Standards shall not affect the accreditation of the other site(s).
- B. When multiple independent schools/programs operate on the same site, each school/program shall be evaluated and accredited separately, and the failure of one school/program to meet the Standards shall not affect the accreditation of the other school(s)/program(s).
- C. A single-site school/program operating on two or more levels (i.e., nursery-kindergarten and elementary or elementary and high school) shall be evaluated as a continuum, and the failure of any level to meet the Standards for that level shall preclude the accreditation of all levels.

Sec. 3 There shall be four stages of membership as follows:

- A. Applicant for Membership
- B. Candidate for Membership (as defined in Article V)
- C. Provisional Member
- D. Accredited Member

Sec. 4 Provisional membership may be attained:

- A. After achieving candidate status as defined in Article V;
- B. After three (3) years of operation, with the year prior to application for membership being completed without a major change as defined in Article IV, Section 8;
- C. After an inspection by an Evaluation Committee from which it is evident that the school/program is making sufficient progress toward meeting the Standards;
- D. After payment of the required fees;
- E. After meeting any other qualifications set by the Association's Board of Directors (“Board”), as defined in Article VIII; and
- F. After approval by the Board for provisional membership.

Sec. 5 Privileges of provisional members:

- A. Provisional membership may be retained for a period of not more than three (3) years unless granted an extension of the provisional membership by the Board.
- B. Provisional membership shall not provide the right to vote.
- C. Provisional members shall not use the name of the Association in advertising.

Sec. 6 Accredited membership may be attained by one of the following processes:

- A. A school/program/center may attain accredited membership by:
 1. Having been a provisional member for a minimum of one (1) year without a major change as defined in Article IV, Section 8;
 2. Having been a provisional member for a maximum of three (3) years (an extension of time beyond the three-year period may be granted at the discretion of the Board);
 3. Having paid the required fees;

4. Having been inspected by an Evaluation Committee from which it is evident that the school/program is in compliance with the Standards and that, in the sole discretion of the Board, any deficiency in meeting the Standards and the resulting effect do not significantly reduce the quality of the school/program and that the school/program is working effectively to correct the deficiency; and
 5. Having been approved by the Board for accredited membership.
- B. A school/program/center may attain accredited membership by:
1. Having achieved candidate status as defined in Article V;
 2. Having been in operation for a minimum of seven (7) years;
 3. Having completed the year prior to application for membership without a major change as defined Article IV, Section 8;
 4. Having paid the required fees;
 5. Having been inspected by an Evaluation Committee from which it is evident that the school/program is in compliance with the Standards and that, in the sole discretion of the Board, any deficiency in meeting the Standards and the resulting effect do not significantly reduce the quality of the school/program and that the school/program is working effectively to correct the deficiency; and
 6. Having been approved by the Board for accredited membership.
- C. A school/program/center may attain accelerated accredited membership by:
1. Holding at least two other accreditations that are recognized by NCPSA, Ai, and/or FAANS;
 2. Having undergone an evaluation with a guided Self-study using a co-accreditation process within the past two (2) years prior to the scheduled AISF review;
 3. Using the NCPSA, Ai, FAANS or historic credible regional association recognized member association's guided Self-study as the assessment document;
 4. Having paid the required fees;
 5. Submitting the recognized member association's Self-study and resulting report no later than three (3) weeks prior to the AISF visit;
 6. Having been inspected by a Visiting Committee from which it is evident that the school/program is in compliance with the Standards and that, in the sole discretion of the Board, any deficiency in meeting the Standards and the resulting effect do not significantly reduce the quality of the school/program and that the school/program is working effectively to correct the deficiency; and
 7. Having been approved by the Board for accredited membership.
- D. Additional Campus:
1. A school/program/center that holds current accredited membership in good standing may attain immediate accredited membership for an additional campus, the term of which accreditation shall terminate upon the same date as the current accredited membership, by:
 - A. Having been an accredited member in good standing for at least two (2) years;
 - B. Having filed an application for the additional campus;
 - C. Having submitted any information required by the Board;
 - D. Having paid the required fees; and
 - E. Having demonstrated to the Board that the additional campus will meet the Standards.
 2. Such accredited membership shall be immediate yet subject to the following:
 - A. Being evaluated by a Visiting Committee, and
 - B. Being approved by the Board for accredited membership.

Sec. 7 Maintaining membership:

- A. Each year, each candidate and each provisional and accredited member shall complete an Annual Report by a date determined by the Board but no later than January 31. The information requested in the Annual Report shall be determined by the Board.
- B. Provisional and accredited members shall pay dues and all other required fees by ten (10) days prior to the Annual Leadership Meeting.

- C. Each year provisional and accredited members shall attend the Annual Leadership Meeting.
- D. All accredited members shall maintain and comply with the Standards of the Association, and if there is any deficiency in meeting the Standards, the deficiency and the resulting effect do not, in the sole discretion of the Board, significantly reduce the quality of the school/program, and the school/program shall work effectively to correct the deficiency.
- E. All accredited members shall be inspected by an Evaluation Committee every seven (7) years, or the term specified by the lead co-accreditation agency, and will subsequently be reviewed by the Board to determine if the school/program is maintaining the Standards.
- F. Alternatively, an AISF accredited school that holds another accreditation recognized by NCPSA, Ai, FAANS or one through a historic credible regional association, and has undergone an on-site evaluation with a guided Self-study using a co-accreditation process within the past two (2) years prior to the scheduled AISF review, may use the NCPSA, Ai, FAANS or the historic credible regional association recognized member association's guided Self-study as the assessment document. Notice of the school's intention to use the aforementioned Self-study and resulting report must be given to the ASAP or ECAP Vice President of AISF at the time of application. These documents must be submitted to the Visiting Committee along with the resulting report no later than three (3) weeks prior to the AISF scheduled visit. After AISF's receipt of the completed Self-study and the accrediting organization's report, an AISF Visiting Committee consisting of at least two Board members will be assigned to visit the school. The Self-study and report must be submitted to the Visiting Committee no later than three (3) weeks prior to the AISF scheduled on-site inspection to determine if the school is in compliance with the AISF standards. The Visiting Committee will report its findings to the Board of Directors within two Board meetings subsequent to the visit. Reaccreditation may also be granted under this procedure.
- G. All members may be inspected by a Visiting Committee at any time.

Sec. 8 Major changes in school/program:

- A. A major change shall be:
 - 1. A change in ownership;
 - 2. A change in school/program head irrespective of title;
 - 3. A change in name of school/program;
 - 4. An addition of a class of a higher or lower level;
 - 5. A change in location of all or part of the school/program;
 - 6. A change in philosophy of school/program; or
 - 7. The addition of a school/program site.
- B. A major change in a provisional or accredited school/program requires the school/program to notify in writing, at the time of the change.
- C. Within six (6) months of a major change, the Board may elect to send a Visiting Committee to inspect the school/program. After the Visiting Committee has reported its findings to the Board, the Board may, at its discretion, change or revoke the school's/program's current type of membership, (i.e., provisional or accredited), or allow the school/program to maintain its current membership.

Article V: Application for Membership

Sec. 1 A school/program must contact the Association in order to begin the application process for membership.

Sec. 2 Before being eligible for membership, a school/program must become a candidate for membership ("candidate").

Sec. 3 A school/program/center will become a candidate:

- A. After having been in operation for at least two (2) years;
- B. After having paid the required fees;

- C. After having submitted all required documents and reports;
- D. After having an on-site inspection by an Initial Visiting Committee after which it is evident that the school/program is a viable entity that is on course to becoming a provisional or accredited member;
- E. After having met any other qualifications set by the Board; and
- F. After having been approved by the Board for candidate status.

Sec. 4 Limitations on candidate status:

- A. Candidate status may be retained for a period of no longer than two (2) years unless granted an extension of the candidate status by the Board.
- B. Each year candidates shall attend the Annual Leadership Meeting.
- C. Candidates shall not have the right to vote.
- D. Candidates shall not use the name of the Association in any advertising.

Article VI: Loss of Membership or Status; Change in Membership; Probation

Sec. 1 For conditions hereinafter described in this Article, loss of membership or status by a school/program or a change in membership imposed upon a school/program or probation shall become effective fifteen (15) days after notification, by registered mail, by the Secretary upon authorization of the Board (“Formal Written Notice”). Such authorization shall be given only after a majority vote of approval by the Board at a regularly scheduled Board meeting, or at a properly called special Board meeting, with a quorum present.

Sec. 2 Probation:

- A. A provisional or accredited member may be placed on probation for a period of up to five (5) years at the discretion of the Board:
 - 1. If its annual dues shall remain unpaid for a period of sixty (60) calendar days;
 - 2. If the school/program fails to submit its Annual Report by January 31;
 - 3. If the Board determines that the information contained in the school’s/program’s Annual Report indicates that the school/program is not sufficiently maintaining the Standards;
 - 4. If, after a review of the school/program by an Evaluation Committee or Visiting Committee, the Board determines the school/program is not sufficiently maintaining the Standards;
 - 5. If the school/program fails to be properly represented at the Annual Leadership Meeting; or
 - 6. If the school/program violates any Bylaws of the Association, including those governing advertising.
- B. If a member is placed on probation, the Formal Written Notice shall indicate the reasons for the probation, the duration of the probation, the type of evidence that must be presented by the school/program, center to demonstrate compliance with the Standards and/or Bylaws, and the procedure that the AISF will follow for and through the probation. On or before the end of the probation, the Board shall make a final determination as to the status of the member’s accreditation and decide whether to allow the member’s accreditation to continue, to revoke the member’s accreditation, or to change the member’s accreditation.
- C. During probation, a member’s accreditation shall continue status quo.

Sec. 3 An accredited member may lose its membership or have its membership changed to provisional membership, and a provisional member may lose its membership:

- A. If the Board determines that the member is in violation of the Standards and/or Bylaws of the Association, and such violation is substantial enough to indicate, in the sole discretion of the Board, that the member is unlikely to remedy the violation.

Sec. 4 A candidate school/program/center will have its status revoked:

- A. If it fails to submit any required reports;

- B. If it fails to pay any required fees;
 - C. After two (2) years as a candidate unless granted an extension by the Board;
 - D. If the school/program fails to be properly represented at the Annual Leadership Meeting; or
 - E. If it uses the Association's name in any advertising.
- Sec. 5 Any member that loses membership and any candidate that loses its candidate status may be required to wait up to a full calendar year to reapply for membership and to begin the process as a candidate.

Article VII: Appeals from Decision of the Board

- Sec. 1 Any school/program/center or person directly affected by actions taken in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws may submit an appeal in writing to the President of the Association requesting a reversal or modification of the action taken.
- A. The appeal shall clearly set forth the appellant's position with regard to each aspect of the action(s) being appealed and provide any additional evidence or information for consideration by the Board.
 - B. The appellant must submit a filing fee along with the written statement of appeal.
 - C. The appellant must submit an appeal fee along with the written statement of appeal which fee shall be held by the Association until there is a final disposition of the appeal.
 - D. The appellant shall be responsible for and shall pay all expenses incurred by the association, related to the appeal including, but not limited to, all travel and lodging expenses.
 - E. The appeal fee shall be returned to the appellant once all expenses related to the appeal have been paid and any account balances have been paid.
 - F. The appeal must be submitted to the President within 120 days of the action being appealed.
- Sec. 2 The President shall then present such appeal to the Board at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting or special Board meeting at which a quorum is present ("Initial Meeting").
- Sec. 3 The Board shall then consider the appeal at the Initial Meeting, and the Board shall determine by a majority vote whether the appellant should be permitted to appear personally in support of the appeal.
- A. If the Board decides to allow the appellant to appear personally, then the Board must schedule a special meeting to be held within sixty (60) days of the Initial Meeting, and the Board shall provide appellant with thirty (30) days notice via registered mail of the day and location where appellant is to appear.
 - 1. At the special meeting at which the appellant is to personally appear, after giving the appellant the opportunity to address the Board, the Board shall evaluate the appeal on its merits, conduct additional investigation and/or inquiry if deemed necessary at the sole discretion of the Board, and then inform the appellant of its decision via certified mail.
 - B. If the Board decides not to allow the appellant to appear personally, then the Board shall evaluate the appeal on its merits at the Initial Meeting, conduct additional investigation and/or inquiry if deemed necessary at the sole discretion of the Board, and then notify appellant of the Board's decision via registered mail.

Article VIII: Officers and Board of Directors

- Sec. 1 There shall be a Board of Directors ("Board") consisting of fifteen (15) to twenty-one (21) elected persons, the immediate past president, and all Directors Emeriti.
- A. In order to be eligible to become a Board member, a person must be employed by an accredited member, and the accredited member must have had accredited membership for at least one (1) year unless waived by a two-thirds vote of the Board with a quorum present.

- B. If a Board member's employing school/program loses its accredited membership, the Board member shall immediately be removed from the Board.
 - C. If a Board member moves employment from one school/program to another, the Board member shall immediately be removed from the Board unless the new employer is an accredited member which has held accredited membership at least one (1) year unless waived by a two-thirds vote of the Board with a quorum present.
 - D. Each board member is entitled to one vote.
 - E. There shall be no more than two board members, in addition to emeriti members, from any school or group of schools.
